Dear Richard:

The new tape arrived safely, and many thanks for sending it. There are some beautiful things on it; I refer to the purely instrumental numbers in the second half of the first side.

What a way to get into Switzerland! To wait to be stopped by the police and taken to the police station in order to wait for a telephone call from the Minister of Dieu Sait Quoi!

I hope this time in Berlin nothing will be left in a taxi.

Couldn't make out who was producing the show you're doing music for; it looks like Heedelanders, but I imagine that's not right.

Here nothing much happens. The winter broke records for cold. It also rained constantly, so nobody but the farmers felt happy.

They're giving a concert of my music Sunday night in Nice. (Festival de Musique Manca, of which I never heard.) I'll stay here, and listen later to tapes from the broadcast. It's too far to go just for an hour or two. Again thank you for the tape.

*All my best,
Paul B.*
